

Four weeks of the Lenten season have elapsed and, as was to be expected, there has been no awakening from the social lethargy which always marks the period of penance. The first feeling of rest has not yet worn off and society gives no sign of taking an interest in itself. Several affairs are promised immediately after Lent, notably the dancing party by the Young Ladies' Aid society and possibly an assembly.

Engagements Announced.
A number of interesting engagements were announced during the week. Principal among these was that of Miss Louise DeLanoy and Joseph H. Richards. The marriage will be one of the social events of the early spring.

Among other engagements that have just been made public is that of Miss Mabel Hackett and C. E. Tavers, Miss Olive Owen and W. E. Schluter, Miss Theresa Turbow and E. W. Brown. The marriage will be one of the social events of the early spring.

For Miss Eskridge.
Miss Eskridge of Port Douglas, who leaves shortly for Plattsburg, N. Y., was yesterday the guest of honor at a beautifully appointed luncheon given by Miss Keith. The dining room decorations were exquisite, arranged in colors of rose and violet. On the table was a center of long-stemmed Perma violets and La France roses. Broad pink satin ribbons and candelabra shaded in pink heightened the beautiful effect.

Covers were laid for Miss Eskridge, Miss Murray, Mrs. Wabbling, Mrs. Jay Tarvin Harris, Miss Howard, Miss Elizabeth Dorn, Miss Earkness, Mrs. Schley, of Port Douglas, Miss Thorne, Miss Webster, Mrs. Ferguson, Miss Anderson, Mrs. W. M. Perry, Mrs. E. S. Ferry, Mrs. McClure, Miss Alf, Miss McMillan, Mrs. Louise S. Smith, Mrs. C. E. McCullough, Mrs. D. S. Murray, Miss Fred and Miss King.

Dainty Luncheon.
Miss Louise Nelden was the hostess of a dainty luncheon Wednesday afternoon. The table was prettily arranged with pink and white carnations and ferns. Surrounding the table were Miss Donnell, Miss Merrill, Mrs. Charles E. McCullough, Miss Irma Alf, Miss Josephine Katz, Miss Wightman, Miss Street, Mrs. Elbridge Thomas, Miss Jessie Anderson, Miss Terhune.

Delightful Affairs.
Mrs. David C. Dunbar gave three delightful affairs during the past week. The first was a dinner party given Monday for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimball. Covers were laid for eight and the decorations were in green and white and were most effective. The following evening Mrs. Dunbar again entertained at dinner, the guests of honor being her sister, Mrs. E. R. Eldridge of Portland. Yesterday the third affair was given and was a daffodil luncheon for twenty ladies.

Kensington Tea.
An enjoyable affair of Thursday afternoon was the Kensington given by the "Misses Dyer." The guests enjoyed a clever guessing contest, for which Mrs. George Ellerbeck won a handsome prize. The parlors were beautifully decorated with tempting refreshments were served.

The guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. Heber Lee, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. George Ellerbeck, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. McGurkin, Mrs. Vivian McCune, Mrs. Lambert, Miss Judd, Miss Beale Clavson, Miss Alice Clavson, Miss Lucille Jennings, Miss Florence Grosbeck, Miss Edna Moffatt, Miss Julia Hayes, Miss Claire Clavson, Miss Cathie Douglas, Miss Geneva Ellerbeck, Miss Ada Ellerbeck.

Beautiful Luncheon.
A beautiful luncheon was given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. H. G. McMillan at her Brigham street home. The table was laid with silver and cut glass and the floral decorations were of violets and marguerites. A made piece of violets, marguerites and maiden-hair adorned the center of the table, while over the snowy damask were scattered maiden-hair and violets. The place cards were bunches of violets fastened to prettily painted views of Japan.

Covers were laid for Mrs. C. C. Goodwin, Mrs. William Igleheart, Mrs. Soles, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Terhune, Mrs. A. C. Evans, Mrs. Hal Brown, Mrs. Dickert, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. F. B. Stephens, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. W. C. Hall, Mrs. Ainslee, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Chisholm, Mrs. H. J. Dimmity.

Delightful Hop.
Friday evening the guests of the Fifth East hotel enjoyed a most delightful hop in which twenty couples participated. The dancing hall was effectively decorated with palms and Japanese lanterns. Delicious refreshments were served at midnight.

In Honor of Mrs. Walter Lewis.
Mrs. O. K. Lewis entertained at luncheon Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Walter Lewis of Butte. The color scheme was a soft delicate pink throughout. The flowers used were La France roses and ferns and the candelabra were shaded in the same delicate color.

To meet Mrs. Lewis there were present Mrs. S. Walker, Mrs. Chessman, Mrs. C. H. Brink, Miss Nellie Walker, Mrs. Gilchrist and Mrs. Eccles.

Opal Club.
The Opal club is making extensive preparations to entertain a large crowd at Christensens' hall next Friday evening, when the last of the club's series of dancing parties for the present season will take place. Judging from the number of tickets already spoken for, the members of the club have every reason to feel that the ball to be given on Friday evening will be the most successful of the entire series. In addition to the presence of the members of the club and their many friends, the attendance will be enlarged by the presence of the Provo Terpsichore club, which is composed of young society people of that city. A committee from the Opal club visited Provo during the week and secured a complimentary invitation to the Terpsichore club to attend the ball. The invitation was cordially accepted and in return an invitation was given the Opal club to attend a complimentary ball at Provo in about two weeks. The committee having in charge the party to be given at Christensens' on Friday evening wish it to be understood that no invitations have been nor will be issued. Each member of the club has three tickets to dispose of, and only through this medium can tickets be obtained. Experience has shown this method to be a good one for drawing a congenial attendance. The club will give its regular social on Tuesday evening at the Ladies' Literary club house.
